Sharp Dressed Man

Whether he's dressing up or down, he'll look dapper in these streamlined styles BY LIANE BONIN

Striking A Balance

Oxford Dress by Aetrex may look like a fashionable take on a classic, but hidden inside are a plethora of features engineered for his comfort. A leather lining enhances breathability, slip-resistant PU soles provide cushioning and support, and he'll be able to insert his own orthotic thanks to a 1/4-inch removable depth. Retail for $150.
