Aetrex Lizzy from Onlineshoes.com

Sometimes, pounding the pavement in style can take a toll on your feet. Now, I'm not a big fan of sneakers, but this new style recently launched by Aetrex could be a way out of that fashion conundrum! In a spring-ready palette of blue suede and lime green inners, it's also supremely comfortable with great arch and heel support, moisture-wicking lining, in a cute, velcro-fastened mary-jane style! Walk the Brooklyn Bridge and back, and this little Lizzy could become your well-worn weekend favourite! They're $129.00 from Onlineshoes.com
