

timesleader.com

November 26, 2013

2013 Holiday Gift Guide

By Sara Pokorny, Weekender Staff Writer

FOR THE FASHIONISTA

Alchemia jewelry: There's one line in which you can find both a dainty rose quartz pendant and a large statement skull piece – all at reasonable prices. Charles Albert's Alchemia contains all that and more, with prices as low as $34 at 3 Sisters (182 United Penn Plaza, Kingston).

Yuki belts: A cinched waist is always in style, and the way to achieve one is more fun than ever. There's a wall of belts at Yuki (164 United Penn Plaza, Kingston) that range from simple bands with simple clasps to belts with clasps whose shine can be seen from a mile away. They run $40-$200.

Aetrex riding boots: Chelsea Riding Boots by Aetrex make a statement – and don't make your feet cry. Check out the stretchy panel at the back, perfect for those whose calves always fight the tall boots. Pick them up for $199 at Arch Comfort (355 East Market St., Kingston).

Vera Bradley purses: The patterns are distinct and the quality unmatched. Vera Bradley purses, which come in all shapes and sizes, are still fresh for any season with the ever-changing patterns to pick from. They're $18 and up at Dundee Gardens (2407 Sans Souci Parkway, Hanover Twp.).

PacSun sunglasses: Sunglasses in the winter might seem odd, but have you ever experienced how blinding snow can be while driving? Big, small, patterned, plain – there's a large selection to be had at PacSun at the Viewmont and Wyoming Valley malls to make you blindingly beautiful for $25.95 and up.

http://www.timesleader.com/news/WK_Cover/1010082/2013-Holiday-Gift-Guide